

PREPARATION OVERVIEW

Deliverance and AfterCare Ministry

Directions

In order to experience a fruitful and lasting deliverance, it is important to review this overview document completely. It will help you understand the FE ministry approach. Because you are responsible for knowing what this overview teaches before receiving ministry, we suggest that you read it fully at least twice. It would also be important and helpful to review the scripture references as well as the resources referred to on the last page.

- This overview is not written to persuade anyone to receive FE ministry. If a person doesn't agree that it is necessary because of their situation and circumstances, they may not be ready to receive it.

Overview

Many born-again Christians need two aspects of prayer ministry to walk in the freedom and power they seek that they intuitively know is possible, but for some reason aren't able to receive. One aspect is heart healing, which applies to emotional wounds, painful memories, lies, and forgiveness issues. The other aspect is deliverance freedom. Deliverance freedom prayer deals with the removal of demons and their programs or devices, along with hurtful lies, memories and emotional wounds.

Part of the goal for this ministry is to eliminate the generational curse principle (Exodus 20:5, 34:7, Numbers 14:18, Deut. 5:9), which says that God will visit the iniquity of fathers on the children to the 3rd and 4th generations. God revealed a principle in His warning, because it applies to the negative results that impact the bloodlines indefinitely until it is effectively cut off. How is this 'visiting' accomplished? Because of the Word of God, Satan has been allowed to enforce the consequences of iniquity, and he is eager to do so! (Hosea 7:1) Satan and the powers of darkness have used this generational principle against people for centuries. Because the Church disobeyed the command of Jesus to cast demons out, it is our consistent experience that most people receive at least some demons at the point of conception. These generational demonic spirits have not been discovered and cast out, which has allowed them to remain 'unchecked' through the bloodlines for centuries.

You might say, "I thought a Christian can't be demon-possessed!" You're right! A Christian can't be demon-possessed, but a Christian can be "demonized." Remember, we are a possession of the Lord Jesus Christ! "Demonized" means that demons can inhabit your body for the purpose of influencing you -- particularly your heart and soul (mind, will, emotions) and your body. "Oppression" is the influence demons work from outside of the body.

Demons use the body like their house. Just like the home where we live contains our furnishings (clothes, appliances, dishes), the demons establish their furnishings (programming, devices, curses, etc.), Demons and their devices have been interwoven into the various aspects of our lives without our knowing.

The FE ministry of freedom and healing would be considered "non-traditional" for several reasons. In "traditional" deliverance, demons are usually dealt with based on their function (e.g. spirit of fear, spirit of anger, spirit of death, etc.). We have learned that demons operate in a hierarchy like the military, in a chain-of-command or pyramid type structure. That means there is one powerful spirit at the top of the hierarchy that is the demon of highest authority (the head generational spirit that is called the 'Head Demon'). Traditional ministry approaches usually remove parts of the generational hierarchy of demons ("Cadre"). But if a person ministering does not know how to find the Head Demon in charge of the Cadre in the body, then that Head Demon will most likely remain to cause more trouble. If you have received traditional deliverance, then the Cadre is reduced, but most of the highest-ranking authorities are still there! There are also other issues to consider in comparing ministry approaches:

FREEDOM ENCOUNTERS DELIVERANCE APPROACH	TRADITIONAL DELIVERANCE APPROACHES
1. The FE approach provides a structured process designed to help the person grow spiritually and maintain their freedom/healing.	Involves a deliverance event that does not provide tools to help the person grow spiritually and maintain their freedom/healing.
2. During the ministry, total safety and protection are provided for the minister as well as the person receiving deliverance/healing.	Often those ministering, as well as those receiving deliverance, are harassed, embarrassed or battered by the demonic
3. The demonic structures, programming and devices are removed and destroyed. The person is sealed and safe from re-invasion.	The demonic structures remain even if the demons are removed. Future re-invasion is a strong probability.
4. The Head Demon in authority must reveal what the Lord Jesus Christ requires him to say about how the demonic worked to hinder and destroy the person's life.	A few demons are dealt with and may be held accountable for their work, but the Head Demon and other demonic spirits remain hidden to cause continued harassment.
5. Personality fractures called "Alters," that have resulted from trauma, are saved, cleansed, healed and integrated.	There is nothing done to help Alters; thus, on-going ministry will be required before inner healing can be achieved.
6. The person also receives prayer for physical and emotional healing.	Little or no attention is given to providing ministry to help the whole person.
7. The person's children, grandchildren and great grandchildren can also be set free in one deliverance prayer session.	Some demons may be removed if they are identified, but neither the person nor their children are set free.
8. This approach addresses the whole person: Body, Soul (mind, will, emotions) and Spirit. The result is freedom, healing and restoration at all levels.	This limited approach typically focuses on evil spirits and seeking outward behavioral change rather than providing ministry to bring inner transformational change.
9. Focus is given to reveal God-given spiritual gifts of a person, rather than to just removing evil. The Holy Spirit reveals the person's gifts, call, and destiny in the Kingdom of God	Nothing is done to reveal God-given gifts. The Holy Spirit is only asked to help remove the demonic.
10. Teaches that freedom and healing are provided by the power of God, but there is no "quick fix." The person must learn to stand in the authority of Christ and make personal choices to move forward in developing intimacy with Him.	Understands that healing is God's work, but a lack of knowledge that freedom /healing involves more than removing demon spirits sets the stage for failure and despair. Simply removing a few demons cannot eliminate a lifetime of demonic destruction.
11. The person is set free and filled with hope, healing, and a vision for life.	The person is rid of a few demons that may have been evident in his/her life.
12. We believe that the FE model is the most respectful and thorough ministry approach of its kind in the world today.	While this approach is piece-meal and often painful, it is still better than refusing to confront demonic realities at all.

What will happen?

We will pray for you by the anointing of the Holy Spirit. The prayer itself is comprised of seven sections: 1) guidance and instruction for the person receiving prayer, 2) the preparatory prayer, 3) the commands to the Head Demon, 4) the cleansing prayer, 5) the confession of guilt made by the Head Demon's before the Throne of God, 6) healing and closing prayers and 7) casting out all demonic spirits.

Once the first three parts are completed, the Lord Jesus Christ will require the "demon of highest authority (Head Demon) to reveal what he and his forces have been doing to destroy you. The Head Demon (HD) will be commanded to answer specific questions as directed by the Holy Spirit. He knows what to respond, because he has been in charge of the evil work since conception when he entered. You may hear unfamiliar terms, but it's not a problem – it's simply the names for their "garbage!"

Often a picture can help us to understand. Picture a courtroom scene with a prisoner of war on trial. The HD will be tied up in cords of the Holy Spirit and placed on the witness stand. Father God is the Judge, Jesus is the Prosecuting Attorney, and those facilitating your deliverance are His helpers. Holy Spirit enforces the revelation of total truth, because He is the Spirit of Truth. The whole courtroom is surrounded with angels, who act as guards and enforcers.

To the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ, your FE ministry will be very gentle and respectful. There will be little or no demonic manifestation to make you frightened or miserable. In fact, in some cases because it is so gentle, people have wondered if it is 'real.' If you choose to receive FE ministry, you need to receive the process by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and faith that He directs this process. It's not a quick fix or a cure-all -- unfortunately, we can't cast out our flesh! However, you've probably been living your life, trying to walk as a Christian with the disadvantage of demonic influence that you did not recognize. What this ministry will do is level the battlefield so that you can 'fight the good fight of faith' and stand in the victory that Jesus has already provided for us! (1 Timothy 6:12)

This HD (plus the demons operating under his authority) played a destructive role in your life since conception in your mother's womb, and thus, it is reasonable to require some accountability of them before they are commanded to leave your body. The process helps to identify how they were involved to thwart and hinder your life. It is not to excuse or justify situations, problems, or sin -- but to bring understanding and to remove false guilt that you may have been carrying your entire life.

How is the demon going to answer questions?

The demon is required by the authority of God to answer and will speak at the "front and center" of your mind as thoughts. Some people "hear" the answers and some people "see" answers. So what you do is repeat what you hear and/or see. You won't know the answers to the questions, so don't even worry about trying to come up with answers or trying to "help" the demon -- you're not responsible!!

The demons will be commanded to release you so that you can rest in the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is not your responsibility to get back with Jesus – it is the responsibility of the demonic to release you. All you have to do is to repeat what you hear without analyzing what you hear. The good news is that you will still be aware of everything going on. As the HD chooses to cooperate by answering the questions before God's Throne, your spirit man will be able to go to the "back" of your mind. Most people try to figure this out, but we are describing a unique experience that gives glory to Jesus Christ while you experience His presence. Choosing to yield and trust the Holy Spirit will help you to stay back with the Lord Jesus. Sometimes it can be challenging for people who want to keep control.

The best and most effective way to stay back in the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ is to repeat what you hear and see quickly, without analyzing and editing things. That means you don't mentally grab the answers, because if you think/analyze, it will over-ride the demon and cause you to come to the front of your mind. The demon will try to entice you with lying thoughts.

It's much easier for the demons to cause you to question or doubt things when you're not all the way back. Said another way, we want you to 'think out loud.' No matter what you hear or see, just say it. Say everything that comes into your mind, and say it right away. It's very important that you do this and choose to trust that the Lord Jesus Christ is in control of the process.

Once again, going back to the presence of the Lord is not your responsibility! It is the demon's responsibility to release you without interference. And remember, everyone is unique. Some people experience a wonderful time with Jesus Christ while they are "back." Others simply sense His presence and peace. You will be aware of what is going on in the room even when you are 100% "back."

- If this approach makes you uncomfortable, you may need more information or questions answered. If you feel it's not possible for you to cooperate with this process, then consider waiting until another time to receive this ministry. Thank you for your honest and prayerful consideration.

What happens if the demons don't talk, and I don't hear anything?

Most people have a very encouraging experience with FE ministry. It's very gentle, quiet and respectful. It's also supernatural and informative. However, whether the demons choose to divulge information or not, the results will be the same -- you will receive your freedom! This is very important to understand. After the deliverance prayer is executed, we command the demons to "Depart!" and you will be free of demons, programming and devices that were set up on the inside. We don't need to get information from the demons for you to receive freedom. It's like a cake with icing. The answers to questions are very helpful -- they're the frosting on the cake, but are not required in order to be free. Freedom is one thing, and information is another. You don't need one to receive the other.

Why talk to them - why should they voluntarily cooperate to answer questions?

The information obtained is not only revealing and encouraging but can also become a basis to reinforce your faith. The Lord Jesus Christ wants you to know what demons have done to hinder your walk with Him, and the demons are humiliated as they admit their wrongdoing. It helps you to understand what was accomplished through the deliverance. Without any information, it can be more challenging to walk out "by faith" all the things that were actually accomplished. The information then becomes confirming and helpful. That's why holding the demons accountable and requiring them to answer specific questions is worth the time and effort.

If demons don't cooperate, they will suffer the consequences of their rebellion by receiving judgment from the Lord Jesus Christ in three progressive steps. The interaction the Lord Jesus Christ had with demons makes it clear that they instinctively know that punishment is to be expected because of what they have done in the lives of those they have afflicted (Mark 5:7, Luke 8: 28). However, the demons will have two choices: full cooperation in obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ, or suffer the consequences of punishment for disobedience.

I thought all demons were liars!

Well, in order to tell a lie, you have to know the truth; otherwise, you wouldn't know you were lying. The HD knows all the answers to any question. "How will we know if he is telling the truth?" The Lord Jesus Christ will not allow a demon to say false information in His glorified name if it isn't true. The HD will be required to speak a "confession of truth" before the Throne of God to confirm that the facts shared are true. (1Thess. 5:21; 1Jn. 4:1-4).

Why can't we just ask all information from the Holy Spirit?

Good question! Have you asked Him? What did He say? Obviously, communication is not a problem for the Holy Spirit, but holding the demons accountable for their evil activities is certainly appropriate (Exodus 22: 2-3). The demons are required to submit to the will of God, even though they can still choose not to obey Him. Disobedience is sin and always involves judgment. Demon spirits are evil, twisted, perverted beings but they are still under the authority of Almighty God. If they don't obey Him,

It is because they choose with an act of their will to refuse. However, if they do obey Him, it's because they want to avoid receiving His sovereign and righteous judgment. Everything they do must be qualified by the sovereignty of God.

What kind of information is gathered?

In Part 5 of the ministry, the demons must reveal important information that the Lord wants you to know. For example, what they have done to hinder your relationship with Jesus, the Father, and with other individuals that God has brought into your life. They will reveal debilitating lies that disabled you, and God will require them to speak His truth.

Usually, the Holy Spirit will require the HD to share about the storeroom of gifts and the Call of God on your life. In the spiritual realm each of us has a “storeroom” where all the gifts, anointing and fruit given by God are present. The demons can see what's in your storeroom, and they try to counterfeit them. Since your conception the demonic has been working in certain important areas of your life to hinder the gifts and to stop you from fulfilling the Call of God on your life!

The Head Demon will also reveal the truth about “Alters” (brokenhearted parts). “What are Alters?” You may have heard the terms MPD (Multiple Personality Disorder) or DID (Dissociative Identity Disorder). They refer to “parts” that are created by God to help us to endure painful physical or emotional experiences that causes the part to live in a separate reality from the core person.

- MPD or DID are termed a “disorder” -- not mental illness, and Alters are certainly NOT demons! God created the ability to ‘break off’ a part of us from the core person that helps us cope with a traumatic event. When an event is too traumatic or painful for us to bear, a “part” is separated in the mind and experiences the event so that the core person doesn't have to endure it directly. Alters are basically God's protection and/or survival mechanism. Alters are not bad but they do represent disunity to the core person. The heart of Jesus through this ministry is to cleanse and ‘integrate’ any Alters. Integration means to “put them back” into the core being to make the person unified again. Over many years of ministry we have found that numerous people prayed for have Alters (most just don't know it). During the course of the prayer, Jesus will do His perfect work to cleanse, heal and integrate them because He does all things well. People who have received this from the Lord Jesus feel so much better!

Each person receiving this ministry will complete a “Checklist.” One of the elements on the checklist relates to ‘Physical Problems.’ Although all illness is ultimately a result of Adam's sin, we do not assume that physical problems are ‘demonically caused’. But it may be important to learn what percentage of each of those physical problems originated by demonic activities. This is another way of holding the demons accountable. It can be very helpful to know how to stand in faith for your healing.

During Part 6, physical healing and closing prayers are administered via specific prayers of faith. While we have seen the Lord accomplish miraculous changes through this prayer of faith, again, there is no assumption that people will always have 100% of their physical issues disappear immediately. Some healing occurs gradually, and some of the person's physical problems might be improved, but not removed entirely (2 Cor. 12:7 – 10). No matter what, we walk by faith in the promises of God!

Freedom Encounters ministry is very comprehensive and can be compared to spiritual surgery. It can sometimes be tiring. Therefore, it would be wise to plan for extra rest and time with the Lord following your deliverance session (that evening and/or the next day).

What happens in the AfterCare to Encounter Jesus ministry session?

This is so exciting: in the deliverance freedom ministry the power of God removes the demons and garbage. During the aftercare ministry, the Lord can speak encouragement and truth to heal our hearts from the impact of the demonic control and hindrances! You will also receive an “AfterCare Guide to Encounter Jesus” that provides self-ministry tools and powerful prayers to keep your freedom and to establish greater intimacy with the Lord Jesus Christ. This ministry is never a “quick fix,” but you will be able to advance forward in your walk with Jesus as you focus on Him and exercise your authority in Christ.

We hope you feel encouraged! There are thousands of people all over the world who have experienced wonderful, lasting freedom and wholeness from receiving FE deliverance and healing ministry. Each of the steps in the prayer have been revealed by the Holy Spirit and provide freedom for simple cases as well as for complex situations involving Satanic Ritual Abuse survivors.

It is our experience that when we follow these procedures in faith and by the Holy Spirit's leading, our faithful Lord will make sure that nothing of importance will be missed. His perfect agenda for the one who seeks freedom and healing will be complete and faithfully executed. FE ministry is not a "formula" that has power in itself. It is our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and what He accomplished through his death on the cross, the blood that He shed, and because of His glorious resurrection from the dead. Humble submission to the Lordship of Christ and the guidance of the Holy Spirit from beginning to end is needed in order to receive lasting results. The Glory belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ, and Him alone!
